

30-Day Cruise Countdown Checklist

A practical final-month checklist to help cruise departure feel calmer.

Advisor Note

This guide is general travel guidance. Always verify booking-specific details, document requirements, schedules, policies, and pricing with your cruise line or travel advisor.

Timing	What to Review
30 Days Before	Find and join the Facebook group for your specific sailing. Review travel documents and confirm names match IDs.
21 Days Before	Check online check-in status, cruise line app access, luggage tags, and dining or entertainment reservations.
14 Days Before	Review packing needs, medications, formal or theme-night outfits, and carry-on essentials.
7 Days Before	Check weather, airport timing, transfer details, hotel information, and port arrival instructions.
48 Hours Before	Charge devices, print or save key documents, check flight status, and keep passports or IDs in your carry-on.
Departure Day	Arrive with extra time, keep valuables secure, and start the trip with a little patience and flexibility.

Cozy Tip

Complete online check-in the day it opens when possible. Earlier check-in often means better arrival times and a smoother boarding experience.

Carry-On Essentials

- Passport or ID and cruise documents.
- Medications and medical devices.
- Phone charger and portable battery.
- Swimsuit, sunscreen, sunglasses, and a simple change of clothes.
- Valuables and anything needed before luggage arrives at the stateroom.

Cozy Tip

Pack your swimsuit in your carry-on. Many people are enjoying the pool while others are still waiting for luggage.

Final Reminder

If any names, dates, documents, transfers, or payment details look wrong, message your advisor before departure day.
